Terms and Conditions

- 1) Collector agrees to submit acceptable coins on CQAC submission forms, with a single tier service per submission.
- 2) Cracked/chipped or damaged holders will not be stickered. They will be returned with the other coins in a submission.
- 3) Payment by check or credit card must accompany your order. No “on account” orders will be accepted.
- 4) Return postage provided by CQAC will be at the published current rate. If the US Postal Service increases rates and such rates are not reflected on the then current submission form, collector will be charged the increased rate.
- 5) Assigned verification by CQAC is final and is the sole opinion of CQAC. There is no financial representation made by the verification. The numismatic marketplace will value all coins. CQAC may maintain a price guide that provides an estimated value of coins it verifies. Such estimated valuations are not an open bid to buy or sell any coins.
- 6) CQAC will not engage in the buying or selling of coins. Existing and subsequent entities wholly or partially owned by CQAC, or it’s owners/employees, may engage in the buying and selling of coins CQAC has verified, and non-verified coins, both raw and slabbed.
- 7) CQAC may alter the terms of this Agreement at any time. Collector will be notified of any such changes via electronic means or regular US Mail. By submitting coins after receipt of such notification, collector has agreed to those new terms. If the collector does not agree to any revised terms, the collector must submit a letter to The Company within 30 days of the published date of change. If the collector does not accept the revised terms this Agreement between The Company and the collector will automatically terminate. No refunds for unused grade verification will be provided.
- 8) Collectibles Quality Assurance Company, LLC is not affiliated with PCGS, NGC, or any other grading service.
- 9) All disputes shall be enforced under the laws of the State of Minnesota.
